

Senior RMLE Leader

Location: Remote

Piramal Foundation's vision is to transform Health, Education, Water and social sector ecosystems through partnerships, high impact solutions and thought leadership. We have a presence in 27 Indian states and 2 Union Territories.

Our approach to address these deep-rooted barriers:

- Partnerships approach to draw additional resources, a vast pool of diverse expertise, and innovations to tackle a social sector problem at scale
- Platform approach to influence systemic transformation through an alliance of partners for "scalable learning" by leveraging a pool of diverse resources to address a single problem with speed

Job Summary:

Senior RMLE Leader, in coordination with the rest of the RMLE team, will be responsible for data analysis, data management and periodically providing updated data tables from the data collected by RMLE team/by program team/ any other departments/partners as well as system data and communicate appropriately to different stakeholders.

Roles and responsibilities:

- Understand and perform basic and advanced analysis using all available data sources for knowledge generation that will guide the program implementation.
- Database management.
- Conducting different types of random sampling from line lists.
- Quantitative and Qualitative data analysis from cleaning to preparation of result tables.
- Data Cleaning: Managing loss of information, data mapping, removing duplicate entries, coding of open-ended responses, merging of data sets etc.
- Preparing data analysis plan / tabulation plan.
- Analysis of data to produce frequencies of different indicators, descriptive, cross-tabulation, simple correlations etc. using SAS/SPSS/STATA/excel as per program requirement.
- Writing syntaxes for concurrent data analysis.
- Qualitative data management and analysis.
- Collating and analyzing secondary data from required sources.
- Prepare appropriate dissemination including scientific manuscripts documents for sharing with internal and external stakeholders.
- Capacity building of program team and Government counterparts on understanding of data and data driven management.
- To perform other ad-hoc tasks as per the need of different stakeholders such as the Government and the donor.
- Travel within or beyond the program areas for 10-30% of the time.

Desirable Qualification & Experience:

Essential

- Graduate/Postgraduate/ master's in public health/management/data science/social sciences/Rural Development/Biostatistics/Statistics Development Studies/Educations or any equivalent subject.

Preferred

- Familiarity with data analysis software.
- Experience with field research.
- Experience of scientific writing.

Essential Skills:

Communication skills:

- Able to articulate and communicate well to stakeholders (verbally and in writing) in a manner that meets the different needs of audiences.

Research & Analytical skills:

- Demonstrated ability to organize, interpret and analyse varieties of data.
- Demonstrated ability to read and interpret published research literature.
- Demonstrated ability to objectively analyse data and describe patterns.
- Demonstrated capacity of developing knowledge products.
- Demonstrated numerical data visualization skills.
- Ability to design data collection tools and gather primary data using quantitative and qualitative techniques.

Team/people Management & Collaboration skills:

- Team player, multitasker, skills to convey technical information into intuitive narratives, ability to mentor team members.

Travel:

Travel within or beyond the program areas for 10-30% of the time.

Apply Now:

Candidates interested in the role may fill this google form:

<https://forms.gle/rCj8cgLoe2STCMrp6> and apply by sharing their updated resumes on email id: soh.recruitments@piramalswasthya.org

with the subject as “Senior RMLE Leader-SOH”

Last date to apply – 27 Jan 2025